Works Clever Scheme to Secure
Money to Take Excursion Trip.

A colored woman called at the residence of Mrs. Bagby on South Third street late Saturday night and told Mrs. Bagby that her cook had sent for some money as one of her children was dead, and that a few dollars would be necessary to give to a dead burial says the Boyle County Herald of Danville.

Of course, Mrs. Bagby readily furnished the money as her cook is one of the best in town and can always be depended upon.

The visitor described in vivid language just how the child died and the grief the sudden death had brought to the mother.

Mrs. Bagby greatly worried about getting somebody to do the work on Sunday and Monday. After making two or three attempts to secure assistance, she had about reached the conclusion that she would be compelled to do her own cooking for a meal or two. But to the surprise of all the cook arrived on schedule time Sunday morning and "when" questioned about the death of her child she was dubious and declared all "not a trace remains." It proved that the impostor desired to take in the excursion to Cincinnati yesterday and had hit upon the aforesaid plan of securing the whereabouts.

Twenty Year Battle.

"I was a loser in a twenty year battle with chronic piles and malignant sores, until I tried Buckner's Aronica Salve, which turned the tide, curing both, till not a trace remains," writes A. M. Bruce of Farmville, Va. Best for old Ulcers, Cuts, Burns and Wounds. 25c at Severs Drug Co., Cloverport.

Dance for Miss Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnn T. Griffith and Dr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Watkins entertained at the standard club rooms on Tuesday evening with a dance in honor of Miss Virginia Griffith Miller, of Asheville, N. C. More than 1,000 guests, including the jockey, the jockey proved to be one of the largest and most enjoyable events of the present social season. Those in the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Griffith, Dr. and Mrs. S. S. Watkins, Mrs. Charles Todd Carter, Dr. D. M. Griffith, Miss Virginia Griffith Miller, Mr. William Overstreet, Miss Sue Roberts Watkins, Mr. Keith McCullock, Little Misses Virginia Todd Griffith and Anna May Frost presided over the punch bowl.

A world of truth in a few words. "Nearly all other concoct cures are constituting, especially those containing opiums. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar moves the bowels. Contains no opiums." You can get it at all druggists.

BUCKET OF BEER.

Resulted in killing at Hawesville on Monday Night Last.

Hawesville, Ky., Aug. 7.—As a result of a fight here last night between John Boyle and Jim Wash two negroes, the latter lies at his home dead with a knife wound just above his heart and a long gash under his collar bone.

The fight came about over the division of a bucket of beer which the two had bought. Words were indulged in before the fight. Wash felt but did not die until a few hours after. Immediately after the difficulty Boyle went to the marshal and gave himself up. The fight occurred between 6 and 6:30 o'clock. The dead negro had been a prominent bad character around here, and Boyle has always been considered a peaceable negro. The examining trial is set for this afternoon.

Was Wasting Away.

"I had been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years," writes Robert R. Watts, of Salem, Mo. "I lost flesh and never felt well and doctor'd with leading physicians and tried all remedies suggested without relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me and I am now sound and well." During the summer kidney irregularities are often caused by excessive drinking or being overeated. Attend to the kidneys at once by using Foley's Kidney Cure.

$25,000 FOR FAIR PRIZES.

The $15,000 Appropriated By State Has Been Largely Supplemented.

Copies of the prize list for the Kentucky State Fair have been mailed by Secretary J. B. Bowles to exhibitors throughout Kentucky and all parts of the country. The prize list will give in detail the classes and the amount of money set aside for each.

Prize money amounting to over $25,000 has been offered, the $15,000 appropriated by the State saving being largely supplemented. The money has been divided as follows: Horses, $5,000; jacks, $400; cattle, $5,000; hogs, $1,500; sheep, $1,000; poultry, $800; tobacco, $1,000; eggs, feed, seeds, butter, etc., $2,500; commerce department, $800; racing, $800. In addition, Hubert Vresel, commissioner of agriculture, has arranged to have $200 appropriated by the State for prizes in the agricultural department.

In making up the list Kentucky breeders and exhibitors have been especially considered, and in addition to the open classes there will be a large number of classes exclusively for Kentucky breeders.

This was done because of the fact that the fair is principally given for the entertainment of the live stock and agricultural interests of the State.

The End of the World of troubles that robbed E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Ia., of all usefulness, came when he began taking Electric Bitters. He writes: "Two years ago Kidney trouble caused me great suffering, which would never have survived had not taken Electric Bitters. They also cured me of General Debility." Sure cure for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney complaints, blood disease, Headache, Dizziness and Weakness or bodily decline Price 50c. Guaranteed by Severs Drug Co.

KANSAS WHEAT CROP VERY LARGE.

The Crop, It Is Thought, Will Aggregate About Ninety Million Bushels or More Possibly.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 7.—The wheat crop in Kansas is estimated not far beyond the expectations of anyone who attempted prior to the harvest to make an estimate of the output. Up to July 1 the general expectation was that the yield would be less than last year.

The threshing has now gone far enough to indicate that the State has raised about 90,000,000 bushels of wheat, or 10,000,000 bushels more than in 1905, and with one exception the largest crop that Kansas ever produced. Indeed, the final returns may raise the estimate above the crop of 1903, which is reported by Secretary Coburn, as 94,000,000 bushels. The Government estimate of the Kansas crop that year was 87,000,000 bushels.

In Self Defense

Major Haun, editor and manager of the Constitutional, Eminence, Ky., when he was severely attacked, four years ago, by Piles, bought a box of Bear's Aronica Salve, of which he says, "It cured me in ten days and no trouble since." Louisiana Immigrants.

From the Milwaukee Sentinel.

"Louisiana is the first State of the Union, so far as I know, that has ever appropriated money to send a commission to Europe for the purpose of encouraging immigration to that State," said Francis Dodge of Baton Rouge, La. "This was done by the last State Legislature and much good is expected of it. Charles Schuler, commissioner of agriculture and immigration, will make a tour of Europe and will show the advantages that Louisiana offers to the foreigners who desire to make a home in the new world.

He will visit Ireland, Germany, Italy and Austria. Other Southern and Western States are reported to follow in the lead of Louisiana, and is a short time, perhaps, States will be offering special prizes to the foreigners who settle within their boundaries."

Was in Poor Health For Years.

Ira W. Kelley, of Mansfield, Pa., writes: "I was in poor health for two years, suffering from kidney and bladder trouble, and spent considerable money consulting physicians without obtaining any marked benefit, but was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure, and desire to add my testimony that it may be the cause of restoring the health of others." Refuse substitutes. — Sold by A. B. Fisher.

"BEAUTIFUL MANIAC"

May Have Fled From Ghosts of Murdered Victims Jean Audley, The Woman With the Dogs, Was Not Always a Pauper.

Wrapped in a shroud of mystery that so far has baffled every effort at solution is the strange, weird woman who recently roamed over this and adjoining counties, leaving conjecture and wonder behind her says the Elizabethon News.

After having ridden a sorrel pony for weeks over the winter portions of Kentucky and Indiana, this mysterious woman, who gives her name as Jean Avie Andely, is now an inmate of the Harrison county, Ia., poorhouse.

During her tour on horseback she carried an army cartridge slung over the bow of her saddle and about her waist she had strapped two revolvers. She carried with her a full camping outfit, including coffee pot and frying pan. Her only companions were half a score of mongrel dogs of all sizes and breeds. To Andrew Stonecipher, keeper of the almshouse, she volunteered the information that her home is in Cumberland Mountains and that she had killed three men. She is about forty years of medium height and dark complexion.

Several months ago a woman answering the description of Jean Andely attracted the attention of people living in the mountainous district of Eastern Kentucky. At that time she was described as being beautiful and was known in her earlier wanderings as the "Beautiful Maniac."

She rode a spirited pony at break-neck speed, taking the high jumps with an air of unconcern. She was followed by a score of dogs, and was never seen without her revolvers.

As a rule she wore her hair unconfined, and as she dashed through the rural districts, past farm houses and through small villages she attracted much attention. Stories of the strange wild woman, her pack of dogs and pony reached the newspapers but so impossible did they appear that many editors cast them into the waste basket. Since then she has ridden from place to place until finally she became exhausted.

A petition has been filed in the County Court requesting Judge Bassett to cause a poll to be opened at the regular election on November 6, 1906 to take the sense of the legal voters of Meade county as to whether or not cattle generally or any species thereof shall be permitted to run at large.

There are fifty-nine signers to the petition and they are all residents of the lower end of the county. It is said that the "lower end" is almost solidly in favor of the law, and we understand that the proposition is very popular in the "upper end." A vote was taken several years ago and it was only defeated by a small majority. It is claimed by those favoring the law that if there had not been a mistake in the ballot it would have carried then.

Stewart Owings, of West Point, was in town Monday. His many friends here are glad to know that he has recovered from the accident he sustained by being jerked under a train at West Point several months ago. The only bad effect from the fall is a stiff arm.

On Monday afternoon, July 30, at 8 o'clock the marriage of Miss Anna L. Childs to Dr. Junius B. Shacklett was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Childs. At the appointed hour about the house were gathered the assembled, and the scene was indeed one of beauty.

The house was tastefully decorated with ferns, plants and flowers, and from the ceiling of the parlor was suspended by white ribbons a large white bell which was covered with ferns and white hydrangeas. Miss Pearl Shacklett sweetly rendered, "Call Me Thine Own," and the bridal party entered, preceded by Misses Hattie Shacklett and Allene Frymire, who carried the ribbons. The attendants were Miss Virginia Richardson and Richard Childs, Miss Nell Shacklett and Gus Albert Richardson, Miss Nellie Childs and John Rod Shacklett. Rev. Ben Shacklett, a cousin of the groom, officiated.

The proposition to use bonds to not exceeding $6,000 to build a new school house at West Point and equip a modern playground, was voted down Saturday by a vote of 87 to 31. Considerable interest had been taken for and against the proposition and each side had some enthusiastic supporters.

NEWS IN MEADE COUNTY.

Local Option Election--Stock
Law Vote--Childs--Hackle Wedding.

(Meade Messenger.)

The petitions calling a local option election in Meade county under the Unit Bill were filed Monday with Judge Bassett, it being a regular term of the County Court. 729 names were on the petitions and this alone assures a victory on October 6, the day set by the Court to hold the election.

Every man who has taken the pains to investigate into the situation in this county as it is today, knows that an overwhelming majority of the voters still favor local option, but notwithstanding this, the fight must go on, and the victory made more decisive. There must be no lagging--legislators must not be allowed to creep into the ranks, for the opposition stands ready to strike if we are caught asleep.

A temperance society will be organized in every precinct in the county and every friend of the temperance cause should make up his mind to attend these meetings and see that your neighbors are there also.

A society was organized at Salem Thursday and a meeting will be held at Elton Thursday afternoon when a society will be organized at that place. Other places will be organized as fast as the committee can get them.

In the next few weeks we will give to you reliable from the business men of Horseshoe, Campbellsville, Hodgenville and other points in the county, who had local option less than two years and you will be surprised to read what the result has been. Business has increased, morals are a thousand times better, property values have increased and bankers, merchants, lawyers, doctors, officials testify to the good results following local option.

Mrs. Jess Board was called to Hardinsburg Monday on account of sickness in her son, Gus Brown, family. All of his children, six in number, are down with typhoid fever.

The wheat wagons continue to come to town. These are pretty sights, as the merchant, the professional man, the mechanic, the day labor, each expect their share of the proceeds and they are sure to get it.

RULES FOR USE OF COLORS IN DRESSING.

Women Now Take More Interest
In Colors They Wear Than Ever Before.

Never have women taken such an interest in the colors which they should wear as this season says the New York Sun. A woman studies herself as she would the gowns she is buying and it is not entirely safe to say that goes to the color expert, who is now an important feature of all the smart dressmaking or suit establishments.

Here are the rules of one expert: Green should never be worn except by a woman with a very clear skin or rosy cheeks, and even then it should be set off by the addition of white red or rose.

To wear rose color against the skin is fatal for any but a girl in the first flush of youth, and dead white is equally damaging except under the same conditions.

Red is thought to be generally becoming, but worn against the skin it lessens the intensity of a brilliant coloring, and it should never be worn by a woman with sallow complexion.

White blue is supposed to be mainly in the minds of the bluest, because it may wear it, if it is relieved with orange, or yellow. In laundry work bluing used upon yellow renders it whiter. The same rule holds good with complexions. Blue tends to whiten the skin of a sallow person.

There is nothing so pleasant as that bright, cheerful, at peace-with-the-world feeling when you sit down to your breakfast. There is nothing so conducive to good work and good results. The healthy man with a healthy mind and body is a better fellow, a better workman, a better citizen than the man or woman who is handicapped by some disability, however slight. A slight disorder of the stomach will distract your mind, your thoughts and your digestion, like a slight fever the mirthlessness and the blues. Keep your stomach in tune and both your brain and body will respond. Little indiscretions of overeating can be easily corrected and you will be surprised to see how much better man you are. Try a little Kodol for Dyspepsia after your meals. Sold by all druggists.

Lest He Forget.

Now that the threshing season is at hand and traction engines are moving about over the country, it would be well for those who have them in charge to remember that the law requires them to send a man at least 200 yards in advance of a traction engine on public roads to warn persons of their approach and render any assistance possible in handling frightened horses. A fine is the penalty for failure to comply with the law in this case.

G. B. Burhans Testifies After Four Years.
G. B. Burhans, of Carlisle Center, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick dust sediment, and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms. During the four years that have elapsed since I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to any one suffering from kidney or bladder trouble." Sold by A. R. Fisher.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, damages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidney trouble is out of order or disease.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is now a common complaint among children, and to be born afflicted with kidney trouble is a curse. If the child suffers from it often, the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bedeviling, distressing, the cause of the different kidney troubles, the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys, blood and not to a habitat as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and the kidney trouble is a curse. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlets. Send enclosing a stamp, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmel & Co., Birmingham, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp Root. Dr. Kilmel's Swamp Root, and the address, Birmingham, N. Y., is on every bottle.

BARBECUE NOTES.

The gross receipts were between $2,200 and $2,300.

The receipts on the contest for a trip to Niagara were $375. The Hon. John P. Haswell, Jr., was the originator of this contest and is very proud of its success.

The advertising committee was composed of the Hon. Paul Compton, Jesse Wadsworth and the Hon. John P. Haswell, Jr., Mr. Compton and their friends use of printers' ink is due the large attendance. It fully demonstrated the value of advertising. There was not a man woman or child in the three counties but what knew of this barbecue.

Carl Benton, conductor on the special assisted by Sam Stites, handled over two thousand people on that day. There was not a bobbie or an accident.

A good many people "bit" the dust but it was just what they expected.

Shepard Hall says there were four acres of people, amounting 4000 to the acre, there were 1600.

It was the soberest crowd that ever assembled to its size. Only one man that we saw or heard of was under the influence of liquor.

Hardinsburg gets on a barbecue. That was a beautiful tribute. Hon. Ben Johnson paid to Masonry.

If Hardinsburg only had our grounds the world could not beat her on a barbecue.

When a woman suffers from deressing weakness, she then keenly realizes how helpless—how thoroughly worthless she is. Dr. Shoop has brought relief to thousands of such women. He reaches diseases peculiar to women in two, direct, specific ways—a local treatment known by druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Night Cure, and a constitutional or internal prescription called Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is applied locally, and at night. It works while you sleep. It reduces inflammation, it stops discharge, it heals, it soothes, it comforts, it cures.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative (tablets or liquid form) is a constitutional, nerve tissue tonic. It brings renewed strength, lasting ambition vigor to weak, lifeless women.

These two remedies, singly, or used together, have an irresistible, positive helpful power. Try them a month and see. Sold by Savers Drug Co.

Fainted.

Bill the Taint Killer is still killing. From the Lake of Killarney, that echo with the joy of his approaching return to New York, he sends a recommendation of Tom Johnson. Mr. Bryan is not aware that Mr. Johnson made his money out of corporations.

The Hon. David Rowland Francis has large interests in corporations of St. Louis. He must part with them or resign from the reception committee. The Hon. G. M. Shoe Bill and the Hon. Jim Ham Lewis are corporation lawyers. They must give up their practice or give up Mr. Bryan. The Hon. Oliver H. Belmont, the Hon. James Smith, Jr., the Hon. Francis Burton Harrison, the Hon. Richard Croker, Jr.: about everybody on the reception committee is "fainted."

To add force to the Jeffersonian command "Special favors to none," the committee on finance has induced the railroads and the steamship companies to grant cut rates to Bryan pilgrims. More "fainted" money: more relatives, more unluckily dealing with the Hon. Bryan.

The grand Bryan welcome home promises to be the most thoroughly "fainted" entertainment that has ever been offered to a discriminating public. —New York Sun.

SURVEYING NEW ROUTE

Via of Brandenburg-L. H. & St. L. is Hunting for Better Roadway East of Ekon.

The work of surveying a new route for the "Henderson" is still in progress, the surveyors now being at work just back of this place, and all indications point to the location of the road through or near Brandenburg says the Meade Messenger.

It is understood that there is every likelihood that the desired grade can be secured which will bring the road to our door, and at the same time enable the road to cut down some of its present heavy grades, and as this is just what the officials of the road are anxious to accomplish, it is almost sure that the route now being located will be adopted as the most feasible one.

At a special meeting of Brandenburg's Commercial Club Monday night, it was agreed to lend the necessary equipment towards the accomplishment of this enterprise, the securing of which would mean so much to our town's growth and future prosperity, and as matters now stand, our chances are glowing for being located on a trunk line of one of the state's leading railroads.

The wedding of Miss Virginia Hoge and the Marchese Emilio San Germano, of Rome, Italy, took place yesterday at the Warren Memorial Presbyterian church. The Rev. Peyton H. Hoge, father of the bride, performed the ceremony.

The church was tastefully decorated in green and plants of all kinds, forming harmoniously the color scheme of pink and white. Just before the ceremony, from 8 to 9:30 o'clock, Carl Shackleton, who presided at the organ, and Mathias Oliver, who directed a stringed orchestra, played a beautiful musical program.

Miss Mary Hoge, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the following girls were bridesmaids: Misses Gertrude Belknap, Lucinda Trabue, Eva Lee Smith, Ethel Newman and Margaret Rhodes, of Danville.

The Marchese was attended by Harry Strater, who was best man, and the following groomsmen: Messrs. William Hoge, Hiram Strater, John Grant, Jack Terry and Dr. Charles Garth.

The bride, who wore a beautiful gown of white Dutchess satin, trimmed in Dutchess lace, was the belle of the ball in the eyes of the townspeople.

After the ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents, and later the bridal couple left on their honeymoon trip. They will make their home in Italy. —Louisville Herald, Thursday.

$17,500 for State Encampment.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 9.—Assistant Adjutant General Parent, who is to act as Paymaster at the Henderson camp of the State Guard, to-day received information from the War Department that it has placed $17,500 to his credit in the Union National Bank, of Louisville, to pay the officers and troops to the camp.

The grand Bryan welcome home promises to be the most thoroughly "fainted" entertainment that has ever been offered to a discriminating public. —New York Sun.

strength of the Open Sky.

"What great deed was ever done indoors?" writes Emerson Hough in the "Red Book." "What great thing of the earth in art, in science, in religion, was ever conceived and brought forth within walls? Paths grow there, and small tragedy and bitterness and pessimism, but not great tragedy, nor the vast and useful pessimism, which uplifts the soul, are there."

"The joyous, hopeful, optimistic things, the large and cheerful events, are found beneath the sky. The Indians say that the babe born in the wind will be chief, and that might well be so. What a joyful event is the birth of a child!" What great drama of the ages was ever played there? What duel on the sea ever equaled the battle under the trees?

"Science may delay, hump-ways, but when great things come within sight, science only helps within walls? Electricity, navigation by the stars—the things which have really conquered the world—did these appear to man as he studied them from a table side? No. The great and sweet things of knowledge come from the open sky. Guidance and trouble, wisdom may have housing, concealment, and so make a confession that it is evil, but before guilty Edem knowledge was out of doors."

The Guillotine.

The machine employed in French public executions has the reputation of being the invention of Dr. Guillotin, but the machine was used long before the doctor's time. He did not publicly encourage a preference for this means of death as being painless, and in consequence some one, unhappy for the doctor's humanity, named the machine after him. The Guillotine was really prepared by a German mechanician, Dr. Scheler, under the direction of Dr. Antoine Louis and hence at first was called a "Louisot" or "Louisette."

And here it may not be out of place to mention the cognate error that Guillotin was its first victim. He never died in it, but was publicly executed by it, escaped, and after the ending of his political career he resumed his duties as a physician and became one of the founders of the Academy of Medicine in Paris. He died May 29, 1814, aged seventy-six, before the French Revolution died twenty years earlier. The first man executed by the guillotine was a highwayman, who died in 1792.

The Wrist.

In spite of the fact that doctors always consider the wrist as the joint most liable to trouble, the patient from the wrist few persons know what important parts of the body the wrists are and how much may be accomplished by treatment of them. When one has fainting spells should be applied to the wrist, especially to the face and temples. In case of severe illness doctors frequently order the wrists to be bathed with milk and with beef tea. Athletes know that the wrists must be kept cool in summer and warm in winter. Athletes should be more experienced in removing a tight glove, especially when you are overheat.

The relief comes not from the hands being uncovered, but from the wrists being unconfined and cool.

Incomes in Great Britain.

If one is earning an income of $1,000 a year he is among the financial "upper ten thousand" in the United Kingdom—in fact, there are not 9,000 (according to the latest figures) who earn $1,000 or better off than $1,000 a year. All the persons in Great Britain and Ireland who have an income of $10,000 a year and over could stand comfortably in a fairly large drawing room twenty-one feet square, while all who have $11,000 or over could be accommodated in a back garden thirty yards wide and sixty yards in length.—London Standard.

Honors Easy.

"This silver dollar," began the cashier of a restaurant as he scrutinized the coins.

"Is bad," interrupted the sour looking patron.

"Well, it doesn't look very good."

"That so? Just bite it, and if it's anything like the dinner I had it's tasteless worse than looks like?"—Philadelphia Press.

A Small Boy's Tears.

"What are you crying for, my poor little boy?" "I fell downstairs."

"Don't take on so, my pet. He'll get better soon."

"Sister saw him fall all the way. I never saw nuffen! Booohoo!"—Sporting Times.

A Matter of Taste.

"Can any little boy," asked the new teacher, "tell me the difference between a lake and an ocean?"

"I can," replied Edward, whose wisdom had been learned from experience.

"Lakes are much pleasanter to swallow when you fall in."

Dearie.

"George," inquired the young wife, "will you be down to us as we were before we married?"

"I can't exactly tell," replied the husband abashedly. "I didn't keep any account of my expenses then."

We must be sure to give due weight to the good side of every event that has two sides.—Eliot.

A Joyous Sight.

The man played his fiddle so merrily and was going about for his health.

On the voyage a school of whales was sighted, and the plumber was seen to rub his hands in ecstasy.

"Why is he happy?" asked a curious passenger.

"He can't help it," whispered the captain. "He imagines each spout is a burst water pipe to be repaired by him at his old rates!"—London Telegraph.

SOUTHWEST

and PROSPERITY.

Are you making as much off your farm as you ought? No doubt you are making all you can. The trouble is the land costs too much. It takes too much money to buy a big farm, and so you are trying to live on a small farm, and you are not getting a share of what you raise, in rent. Wouldn't it be better to go where the price of good land is so little that you can own a big farm—where every acre of the ground is working for you and all you raise is paying you good profits?

There is now a new and valuable land in the Cotton Belt Route, along the line of the Cotton Belt Route, which can be bought for $3 to $10 an acre. This land is increasing in value each year.

See the Southwest at Small Cost

A trip to the Southwest would convince you that your best interests lay in settling there. The trip can be made at very little expense. On the first and third Tuesdays of each month you can purchase a round trip ticket to and from the Southwest for $10.00. Stop-overs will be allowed for you to examine any locality you desire.

Write at once for free copies of books describing this wonderful country and for full information about cost of tickets, etc.

WEDNESDAY AUGUST 15, 1906

For Congress.

HON. BEN JOHNSON

Somebody says the peek-a-boo waist is more holes than righteous.

Kentucky waits with baited breath and the knowledge that it would be an impossibility, for an answer to the charges made directly and from the record of Attorney General Hayes against the State administration.—Owensboro Messenger.

Ben Johnson has been doing Meade for the last week. He was shaking hands with all the dear people, smiling on all the babies and having the time of his life. There is no better fellow with a bigger or kinder heart who ever asked the suffrage of the people than Ben Johnson.

Down at Fordsville they have concrete sidewalks, and a fellow feels like he was stepping along on Fourth street in Louisville. This is a splendid improvement over the old plank and mud way, and we congratulate the citizens of that town on their up-to-date improvement.

We planted one little piece of a potato, one fourth of a whole one to the hill. We are now digging from five to six large, smooth potatoes from each hill. This is what we call getting results. We get a lot of pleasure out of seeing them grow and helping them with our hoe.

"Old man Bob Robertson," that's what the younger set calls him, but they are mistaken, he's younger now and has more get-up in him than he ever had, was down in Ohio county last week and bought 13 head of fine mules. He says the crops in Breckinridge, Grayson and Ohio are the best he ever saw.

Kingswood is booming. Brother Hughes is spending lots of money and lots of good energy in building up that place. Streets are being opened in the town site where several lots have been sold and houses are being built. There are between 50 and 100 men at work getting things in shape for the school which opens August 31.

Ed. Fenn is doing some excellent work on the public roads. Mr. Fenn has had several years experience as section foreman on the railroad, and he knows how to handle dirt and how to grade and ditch a road. Pity but what all the men in charge of the public road work in this county had had the experience.

rience of Mr. Fenn. So far as we have seen and heard, the road working is very much better this year than it has been in previous years. We are glad to see this. There is nothing that this county needs so much as good roads, and good honest work brings them.

The Fifth Annual Masons' Barbecue will be held at Cloverport in Skillman's grove on Thursday, August 23. It is generally conceded by everyone that has ever attended one of these celebrations that they are the most enjoyable and delightful of all the country picnics throughout the picnic season. The natural beauty of the place where the gathering is to be had is not surpassed by that of any picnic site in the county except Tar Springs. The accommodations are better and the absence of dust is one good feature not to be found every place. The green grass and the big shade trees, the babbling brook all tend to make the place at once cool and pleasant.

Cloverport Masons and Cloverport people in general put forth every effort possible to make their guests enjoy the day. The celebration though held under the auspices of the Masonic Lodge is not only looked after by the Masons but by all Cloverporters who see to consider it their duty to make the barbecue a success. The result of this union of work and spirit is that the Masonic barbecue at Cloverport is looked forward to each year by all as a day of real enjoyment and pleasure.

Let everybody in these parts lay aside the cares of life and come and be with us. You will be welcome.

PEACE MAKER GETS SHOT THROUGH CHEST.

John Hemphill, a white man, and Arthur Haynes, a negro, became engaged in a difficulty Saturday night about 10 o'clock, which resulted in Sam Dean, a negro, being shot with a pistol through the right side of his chest. Dean was trying to separate the two and as he stepped between them Haynes fired the shot. Dean will live. The trouble occurred in front of M. F. Popham's saloon. The trial has not been set yet on account of Dean's inability to be present.

Mrs. Romney Renfrow, of Dundee, was visiting relatives here this week. She was accompanied by Mrs. Dr. Duff, of Sulphur Wells. They return home today.

J. H. Basham repairs watches, clocks, jewelry and sewing machines. His place of business is with Thos. Adkinson at Irvington. Call and see him.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Arnold and children, of Louisville, have been visiting Mrs. Arnold's father, Mr. John Mattingly, of near Webster.

Mrs. John Weisenberg and children are at Tar Springs.

Mrs. Bettie H. McCall and daughter, Miss Bettie Lee, of Irvington, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Keith Monday. Mrs. McCall purchased of Mr. Keith a handsome Barrie granite family monument.

GOOD WORD FOR ROCKEFELLER.

He Has Not Been Even Half Paid For His Work, Edison Declares.

"In my judgement," says Thomas A. Edison in an interview published in Pearson's Magazine, "such men as John D. Rockefeller and Andrew Carnegie have actually done more for the country, for the masses, than any other men, with the possible exception of the inventors."

"Of course, I do not approve of the advantage secured by Mr. Rockefeller through secret railroad rebates. Yet that was not his fault so much as the fault of our laws or our administration of the laws.

"They were all in the same game. He simply played it better and on a larger scale. Human nature is not perfect, and so long as we leave such opportunities to business men we must expect them to take advantages where they can.

"As I look at it, Mr. Rockefeller has never been able to draw his wages for what he has done for the world. He hasn't been even half paid for his work. What has he got out of it? A lot of tin boxes full of bonds that are of no use to him or anybody else.

"If the Standard Oil Company were to be divided up into a hundred different proprietorships and managements, today refined oil would be selling for 25 cent, more within ten years. I have bought lubricating oil for $21 a ton and with all my knowledge of the technique, I cannot see how it can be made at that price.

"I believe that if all the manufacturing businesses that have been merged into great central systems should be forced back into their original units of organization, the products of industry would cost 20 per cent, more actually to make than we can buy them for now.

"Take two large manufacturing works competing with each other. One is managed by a logical thinker, the other by a man who is not. Now, if competition is close the thinker improves his methods, while the other man simply cuts down wages or goes out of business.

"The man who believes that the growth of great private fortunes and the concentration of corporate systems make against the real progress of the country and the betterment of general conditions of life doesn't know on which side his bread is buttered."

$5,000 For A Foot.

Elizabethtown, Ky., Aug. 9.—Joseph House, an L and N. foreman of Lebanon Junction, formerly of Tunnel Hill, this county, who lost a foot in a wreck some time ago at the former place has comprised with the railroad company for $5,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bartles of Bartles, are the guests of his parents.

KINGSWOOD

MEETING.

It gives me pleasure to announce to the many friends interested in Kingswood encampment, that we will hold our annual meeting from the 21 to 31 of this month. Rev. A. A. Niles, the well known Baptist evangelist, of Henderson, Ky., and J. M. Pike, editor of the Way of Faith, of Columbia, S. C., will lead us in gospel message. I. L. Jones, of Ft. Payne, Ala., and J. C. Jones, of Ky., one of the most charming and helpful singing evangelists in the field will have charge of the music, with the aid of other good musicians.

Every body is cordially invited to this encampment. It is no money making scheme. The originator of it expects to hold the meetings annually and to put money in it every year and to make nothing out of it but the glory of God and the salvation of men.

Each person will be expected to pay 25 cents a day for the meals, 25 cents a day for the minstrels, and all other days of week free. I trust the friends of the camp meeting will gladly meet this requirement and help me to year to year to push forward the gospel of full salvation. We are hoping and praying for a glorious meeting. There will be a dining room on the grounds for those from a distance. Single meal twenty five cents, board $3.50 per week. Room and board free for all ministers. Tents that will accommodate four persons will rent for $4.50 and those that will accommodate six will rent for $6.00. Pray men and come expecting the blessings of God.

J. W. Hughes.

BECKHAM GANG ON THE RUN.

Opposition to the Administration Seems Strong in Every Section.

Lexington, Ky., July 31.—Democrats in Central Kentucky who are making a determined effort to wrest the control of the party from the Frankfort machine are much delighted at the news from the Southern and Western parts of the State of McCleary's strength and the intense opposition to the whole Beckham regime.

While the reports from those sections are to the effect that the Beckham crowd is everywhere on the run, the opposition sentiment cannot possibly be stronger than it is in Central and Eastern Kentucky. The opposition to the State administration in Lexington and Fayette county is not a whit stronger than it is in any other part of the State. Every day information comes from Woodford, Bourbon, Scott, Franklin, Boyle, Clark, Montgomery, Anderson, Harrison, Nicholas, Madison, Fleming and Robertson, in fact from all the counties in this region, that McCleary's strength is overwhelming, and so much talk of that is heard that the sentiment is rapidly crystallizing that Beckham and his organization will be crushed, and now and then the prediction is freely made that Beckham, to save himself from the sting of certain defeat and the humiliation it would bring him, will not run the race out.

Not only are they determined to crush Beckham, but they are likewise determined to defeat every man that casts his lot with him. For this reason McCleary's strength is not the only tremendous force. Besworth's following is amazing and that of Hays is just as positive and determined.

The reason of this is not far to seek. Beckham has surrounded himself with a set of small men. He has played small politics. He has used the patronage of his office as a means of building up his machine. His policies have been a few steps down to an election of a precinct committeeman. There is nothing that he and his henchmen would not do to enable them to control the machinery of the party and grab the offices.

Unpopular Legislation.

The work of the last Legislature, or much of it, is exceedingly unpopular with the masses of the people. Particularly is this true of the revenue law.

It is obnoxious to many classes of people and Beckham is held responsible for this and other unpopular measures because he dominated and controlled the Legislature. He is charged with the useless offices created and with the excessive and extravagant salaries provided. In short whatever burdens were imposed upon the people either in the creation of useless offices with fat salaries attached or in the creation of excessive taxes, he is charged with being largely responsible with the use of patronage and promises of patronage and his coterie of office-holders were able to secure the passage of whatever measures they proposed and these measures, as the people have discovered, were numerous and costly.

An Irresistible Storm.

For these and many other reasons that are daily assigned, the people now seem bent on driving Beckham and his crowd of office-holders from power, and it appears that from every section of the State—from the Central, from the Eastern, as well as from the Southern and Western portions of the State, there is an irresistible storm that will sweep them to defeat.

Moreover, so far as McCleary is concerned, he is only asking for an endorsement. He has made an excellent Senator and by every precedent in Kentucky he is entitled to be re-elected. Beckham was endorsed for Governor and is now trying to deny McCleary an endorsement. This is not fair play and fair play is an attribute for which Kentuckians have always been noted.

May Drop McCleary.

A story from a trustworthy source is to the effect that in order to appease Hines, who is a strong McCleary man, McCleary has a candidate for a editor and support Hines. This follows a conference of Saturday night and Sunday. McCleary, it will be remembered, was brought out by Haley for Audinton, as was Chinn for Secretary of State. Later Haley, in the public press, repudiated Hager, saying he was no weak a candidate to win. At this juncture Hines had Hager in an effort to control the State Committees, leaving Haley as Beckham's sole and only political asset. The mix-up has been a pretty one. Now Beckham side-steps McCleary in the hope of placating Hines. Whether he will make terms with Hager yet remains to be seen, or whether McCleary and his friends, of whom is Haley, will agree that he shall be so sacrificed, also remains to be seen.

But all of this nuts for the opposition.

McCleary and Hays Busy

In the meantime McCleary is not only diligently at work in his office perfecting a most marvelous organization, but Hays is unfolding day after day a story of official graft and debauchery that marks a dark chapter in the State's history. His speech at Lawrenceburg Saturday was telling. He had a tremendous crowd, and it was evident that his hearers believed every word that he said, so simple and direct was his statement, and yet shocking the disclosures that he made, that he aroused his audience as nothing else could have aroused them.

Kansas Girls.

(From the Emporia Gazette.)

Most of the girls of the young dancing set will not go to dances with a town boy, they say, he has no particular choice but takes the phone book, begins at A and goes down the list till he gets a girl. By comparing notes they have decided he does this, and are especially sure because he always comes to the dance with girls whose last names begin with a V or a W.

When a good-looking woman who is a stranger goes into a furniture store the town boys who are following at a safe distance give up in despair. Women interested in furniture at once run to the door.

Emporia girls are getting awfully independent. A boy with a new trumpery pin has been here two months and no girl has pursued him openly.

Don't drag along with a dull, listless, heavy feeling. You need a pill. Use Dewitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. Do not suck or grip, our results are sure. Sold by all druggists.

Wedded in Buggy.

A peculiar and somewhat rustic, if not romantic, marriage took place in the southern end of this country last week, when James Lucas and Miss Rose Kincaid were made one. Lucas got in his buggy at Louise Grove and drove to the home of his sweetheart in the Zion vicinity, where she joined him. They then drove over to the wedding, and were married in the buggy, driving back home in continual bliss.—Elizabethown News.

An Oddity in Barometers.

St. Louis is responsible for an oddity in barometers, the "rope barometer." It has been displayed in a conspicuous place at the municipalerry house, St. George, and consists of a white placard, appropriately inscribed, with a piece of rope about a foot long dangling in the middle. The barometric phenomena are explained in the following legends:

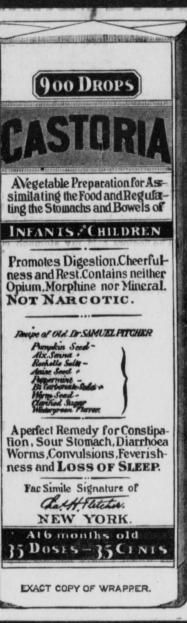

If rope is dry, fair.

If rope is swinging, windy.

If rope is wet, rain.

If rope is wet and swinging, storm.

If rope is frozen, cold.—New York Sun.

BOYCOTT

Against Farmer Who Refused to Pool Tobacco—Hancock Farmer
Has Troubles Experience.

Hawsville, Ky., Aug. 4.—An unusual discovery was made in the wheat stacks of Howard Lambert here today when the thrasher of J. C. Adams, of the lower bottom, had threshed about half of it. Open rings, pieces of horse shoes, pieces of chain and other such obstructions were carefully concealed in the bundles of wheat. The first few pieces had gone through or partly through the machine before the discovery was made and then the machine was stopped and a careful examination of the stack was made with the above result. The thrasher is a fine one and cost $2,200 but was only partially injured. Several weeks ago, Lambert, who belonged to the A. S. of E. "dumped" his tobacco, and when he wanted to get help in cutting his wheat he found difficulty in doing it. Finally he completed the cutting but he then found that his trouble was only beginning. He could not get anyone to thresh the wheat for him or help him to do it. He hauled the wheat to a stackyard near town, and put it into condition to wait until he could get a thrasher, believing that he could hire town help to assist him in the work. He finally engaged Mr. Adams to do the threshing and with the above result.

The queer discovery caused much talk here and it is still being talked about. Reputable members of the A. S. of E. deny that they or any of their members had any thing to do with the placing of the strange obstructions in the wheat stack.

There are four other men in the county, who have dumped their tobacco, and who have been refused help by their neighbors to thresh their crop.
